Food for Thought

“Gratitude can transform common days into thanksgivings, turn routine jobs into joy, and change ordinary opportunities into blessings.”
~ William Arthur Ward

Superintendent’s Corner

I want to take a moment to wish the members of our school district family a very happy holiday and a bright, beautiful year to come. There is something so incredibly special about South Huntington, and our district literally radiates warmth and kindness in every school. It is a privilege being part of the Wildcat team, and my family looks forward to the years of accomplishment and partnership to come.

May the blessings of the season brighten your home and bring joy and happiness to your holiday table.

News from Deputy Superintendent/Business Dr. Joseph Centamore

This week, the Whitman World Language Department hosted two traditional holiday baking contests.

Dr. Eikenaar-Klang organized the annual Bûche de Noël Baking Contest. The following French students were recognized for their efforts:

Congratulations to all of our student artists on their hard work, innovation, and talent, and to our art educators on their support and guidance!

Last Thursday evening provided for a resounding performance by the Concert Choir, the Treble Choir, Whitman Chorale and The Voices of Walt Whitman. The concert concluded with the traditional alumni collaboration. On Tuesday, The Voices of Whitman also performed their holiday caroling visiting several schools, as well as community locations, including the Walt Whitman Shops, Sunrise Assisted Living and Huntington Hospital. Congratulations to Mr. Altinel and our student musicians, as well as the entire music department at Stimson and Whitman for a wonderful Winter Concert Season. We look forward to the Birchwood, Maplewood and Silas Wood concerts soon after the start of the New Year!

I am honored to announce the following students have been selected for the SCMEA All County Music Festival in March.

Happy Holidays from Curriculum, Instruction and Technology

We would like to wish all our community members, teachers and students a joyous and wonderful holiday season. As we head into the new year, we want to reaffirm our commitment to the South Huntington community, ensuring that our students continue to be provided the best education possible. We also want to thank and share our appreciation for all the help and support that has been given to us during these troubled times, and look forward to a bright and positive 2022. Please take this time to enjoy life with your family and loved ones.

Chrome Books to be brought home during the Holiday Break

In an effort to remain proactive, the South Huntington School District will be requiring all students to bring home their one-to-one personal device during the holiday break. This is an effort to ensure that all our students are prepared if there is a potential closing of in-person instruction. While this is not our intention at all, we just want to prepare our students and staff if a situation like this arises. As always, if you have any questions regarding this, we ask that you please contact the office of curriculum and instruction at 631-812-3101. Thank you and have a wonderful holiday.

Some Thoughts from Assistant Superintendent for Student Services April Poprilo

During this holiday season, our partnerships with community organizations, religious organizations, local businesses, PTA, district employees, and other generous individuals have contributed to overwhelming collections of donations and contributions from the Thanksgiving Donation Drive and Giving Tree. These initiatives continue to support families in our district who are in need. A very special note of gratitude and appreciation to all our partners and friends in the South Huntington community for being so thoughtful, generous, and demonstrating the true spirit of kindness. A "shout out" to our social workers who have worked diligently with coordinating/distributing collections and continuously serve our school community as a resource for our families and students throughout the year.

Transition Coordination Service Update: Please join us on January 5th, at 7 p.m., Partners for Transition will be presenting to parents of students with special needs about developing self-advocacy and self-determination skills for their children. This event will take place at Walt Whitman High School's forum. Virtual option is available as well. Also, save the date for January 19th, Mrs. Siragusa will be presenting at SEPTA's monthly meeting about transition planning.

Other upcoming events in February and March, Partners for Transition will also conduct informational presentations about the Office of Persons with Developmental Disabilities (OPWDD) and Social Security/Medicaid Benefits for our families whose home language is Spanish. If you have any questions about these upcoming events, please contact Mrs. Michelle Siragusa, Transition and Vocational Specialist, 631-812- 3871, msiragusa@shufsd.org.

On behalf of the Student Services leadership team and support staff, I want to wish our South Huntington learning community best wishes for happy and safe celebrations of the holiday season with family and friends!

HAPPY HOLIDAYS

The South Huntington Nutrition Services Program would like to wish everyone a wonderful holiday. This time of the year allows us the opportunity to remember with gratitude the gifts we all have in our daily lives. May your time be spent with family and friends, enjoying special moments punctuated with the traditional foods that remind us of this special time of the year. Warm cocoa by the fire is one of our favorite traditions at SHNS. Make sure to enjoy doing what makes this time special for you and your family. See you in 2022!

News from Mr. Kenneth Costa, Principal of Walt Whitman High School

It gives me great pleasure to announce that we have nominated Ms. Tinucci for our Teacher of the Year. Ms. Tinucci has worked in South Huntington for over 27 years. While mostly at Walt Whitman High School, her employment with us has found her at Oakwood and Silas Wood as well. She has taught almost every visual arts course offered at the high school, from Studio in Art, to Advertising Design, to Animation, to Fashion, and has taught at the Alternative School for over a decade. In addition, Ms. Tinucci has forged relationships with entities outside of school to the benefit of her students, including but not limited to, Artists in Residence through BOCES, the Nassau County Museum of Art, the South Huntington Public Library, and the Whitman Birthplace, while teaching at Heckscher Museum throughout her career. Outside of the classroom, Ms. Tinucci has served as an advisor to the Lamplighters Stage Crew Club, and founded and continues to advise the National Art Honor Society here at the high school. She has also been a mentor to new teachers not only within her own department, but as a teacher within the District's New Teacher Training program.

This resume is brought to life more importantly, by the processes, interactions, learning and joy found within the walls of her classroom. While her competence in the arts, and her complete control of her subject matter is proficient, her main focus is always on her students, not only those who intrinsically possess a love of the arts, but also those who struggle with self-confidence and find their way through the craft inspired in Ms. Tinucci's classroom. In a recent classroom observation write-up, the observer wrote, "Not only did Ms. Tinucci's conversations with students demonstrate her knowledge of their interests and abilities, but she shared their individual work from a prior course to illustrate the point of the lesson for the day. This care taken to actually reproduce each student's own, individual work, goes far in not only showing students that she cares about them and their work, but in motivating the students by telling them that what they are about to do has a purpose and a meaning. The classroom environment and relationships fostered by Ms. Tinucci are not lost on the students themselves. In the words of one of her multiple-year students, "Ms. Tinucci is an inspiration to young artists around the building, encouraging and uplifting the academic ability of her students. Not only is she one of the best art teachers you'll ever meet, but her caring soul could leave a positive impression on anyone!"

We wish Ms. Tinucci all the best and congratulate her on her nomination for Teacher of the Year.

Ugly Sweater Contest, Hallway Decorations, and the Holiday Car Parade

The week leading up to the holiday break was full of excitement and festivities. It was great to see our staff and students getting in to the holiday spirit with an "ugly sweater day" which brought out the best of the once a year sweaters! The hallways were decorated with cheer and good tidings as the mood of the school was festive and celebratory. We thank all of our students and staff who made this week so memorable.

Upcoming Events:

8th Grade Parent Orientation: Thursday, January 6, 2022 in the Performing Arts Center from 7 – 9 p.m.

Whitman Today: Friday, January 7, 2022 in the Forum from 8:25 – 11:40 a.m.

On behalf of the staff at Walt Whitman High School, we wish you and your family a happy holiday season and a happy and healthy New Year!

News from Mr. Eddie Smith, Principal of Stimson Middle School

Stimson is thrilled to announce their 2022 Teacher of the Year. Congratulations to Ms. Jennifer Hohner, English teacher, Walt Whitman graduate, and by far the most loving educator we know. Her kindness and authentic enthusiasm for what she does challenges us all to be better. Ms. Hohner you are the BEST!!!

The Stimson family would like to wish the entire South Huntington community Happy Holidays and a Happy New Year! We will see you in 2022!

very proud of Mrs. Ortiz and all her accomplishments.

We have also been very competitive this month as we recently completed our Winter Wonderland Door Decorating Contest! The halls of Maplewood truly look like a Winter Wonderland and congratulations go out to the following winners:

- 3rd Grade - Mr. Tomeo's Class
- 4th Grade - Mrs. Brendel and Mr. Dwyer's Class
- 5th Grade - Ms. Servedio's Class
- Special Area - Mrs. Teeter's Library
- Best Overall - Mrs. Lettieri's Class

Lastly, our staff conducted their Ugly Sweater Contest last Friday, December 17th, and wow, was it ugly! This year's top 3 winners were:

- Ms. Giammarusco
- Mrs. Trzaska
- Mrs. McQueeney

On behalf of all of us at Maplewood, we would like to wish everyone a well-deserved holiday break and a Happy New Year! We can't wait for all the fun 2022 has to bring our way.

News from Dr. Annie Michaelian, Principal of Oakwood Primary Center

At Oakwood we have been enjoying the holiday season. The hallways have been filled with holiday smiles and excitement. In addition, the classrooms are complete with fun winter activities too.

On Wednesday, January 26th, at the South Huntington Board of Education Meeting, we are excited to honor and congratulate Oakwood's Teacher of the Year, Ms. Dina Groe, and all of the South Huntington Teachers of the Year on their well-deserved recognition. We are so excited to share this special time with Ms. Groe, one of Oakwood's amazing Kindergarten teachers! Ms. Groe has made a tremendous impact on her students. We look forward to honoring you, and your Oakwood family is so proud of you.

Oakwood's festive spirit is loud and proud as our classrooms are all decked out for the winter season. Oakwood's Second Annual Door Decor Contest is in full swing. Classroom teachers have been taking Door Decor tours around the building to show students all the decorations around Oakwood. Be sure to check out our Instagram to see all of our festive doors.

Our second-grade Winter Wonderland Sing-a-long was held last week, and it was a spectacular show. We truly enjoyed this special event at Oakwood, and we thank our music educator, Ms. Morabito, for all of her hard work and dedication to make the Sing-a-long a success.

This week we are continuing with our Oakwood Spirit Week and each day brings more fun with a variety of spirit excitement. We complete the week by dressing in winter pajamas on Thursday.

We send a very special thank you to our community for the incredible support it has given to Oakwood and its families this holiday season. Thank you for spreading holiday cheer to families with your thoughtfulness and generous donations. Our community is truly one of a kind! Oakwood appreciates you very much!

We would like to take this opportunity to wish all of our students and their families a very happy and healthy holiday season and a healthy new year ahead. We hope the holiday break allows you to spend time with family and friends, and we look forward to seeing everyone in 2022!

News from Mr. Mitchell Levy, Principal of Countrywood Primary Center

On behalf of myself and the entire faculty and staff at Countrywood, we would like to wish everyone a very Happy Holiday Season and a Happy, and Healthy New Year! We realize that, yet again, this holiday season may look different than a typical year, but we are hoping our Countrywood families and faculty have an opportunity to spend time with family, friends, and loved ones. These have certainly been challenging times for everyone and we are lucky to work in a community where the schools and the community work in partnership, always looking out for the best interest of our students and their families. We thank you for the strong home-to-school partnership that we have built here at Countrywood.

A HUGE thank you to Mr. Slawitsky and our wonderful PTA for partnering to bring us last Friday's Holiday Sing-a-long. We thank all of our families who came out and enjoyed one of the three sessions to help get everyone in the holiday spirit!

We are extremely excited to announce that Countrywood's Teacher of the Year for 2021 is Noreen Scileppi. Noreen has been a valued member of the speech department for over 20 years, and works tirelessly to provide for the needs of her speech students and the entire speech department. She is currently the "lead teacher" for our after-school Friendship Project, a social skills group, as well as, an active member of our SBM team for several years, helping to brainstorm and bring to fruition several school-wide SEL programs for the betterment of our school community. Ms. Scileppi is a member of our building BEST team and on a regular basis contributes thoughts and suggestions as we brainstorm ways to assist teachers in helping their neediest students. Congratulations Ms. Scileppi on being named Countrywood's Teacher of the Year!

There is still plenty of action taking place here at Countrywood. On Tuesday, our second graders were treated to a wonderful musical performance and caroling from the High School. We thank Mr. Altinel for including Countrywood in this wonderful performance. Many of our classes have been having their own modified holiday parties and celebrations. We look forward to the time, in the hopefully not too distant future, when we can return to normal and once again invite our families back in to participate.
