It is always remarkable to note how quickly the return from Thanksgiving morphs into the Christmas and Hanukkah season and December literally flies by at warp speed. The weeks to come will be filled with positive energy, as holiday celebrations mesh with the concerts, tournaments, and discovery that inevitably mark the season. The members of our school community will most surely draw inspiration from the bevy of activity, and we welcome you to embrace the moments and memories to come.

News from Deputy Superintendent Dr. Joseph Centamore in the Curriculum Office

Thank you to all of the community members who joined us for last weekend's Winter Wonderland. It was heartwarming to see over 600 students, parents, and staff joined together in such a spirited cause. We take great pride in our district's central community role, and look forward to building upon this wonderful day. Special thanks to Jim Wright, John Murphy, Corey Blair, Elaine Ferranti, Laura McLean, Annie Michaelian, Maria Colon, Trish Wilkinson, Vanessa Melillo, Liz Mahoney, Thomas Ciravolo, Liz DeMonte, Mari Scardapane, Regina Caliendo, and Cathy Theodorakis, as well as our Latin Heritage Club and Girls' Leader Organization for facilitating and supervising the various activities, and to the SEPTA Leadership for generously providing refreshments. We also thank Anthony Ciccarelli, Jose Castillo, and Gayle Steele for joining the Cabinet members, BOE and staff in supporting the community event. Finally, we offer heartfelt gratitude to the Art Honor Society and Gina Tinucci, as well as the Latin Heritage Club and their mentors, Maria Kaneris and Maria Ramirez, whose talents literally transformed our District Office into an enchanted holiday village. Saturday was clearly one of those days that represent the very best about a Wildcat family.

News from Assistant Superintendent for Business and District Operations Dr. Vito D'Elia

Please join in congratulating our varsity wrestling team and thanking Coach Chris Cardella and our wrestling parents for hosting the incredibly successful Andrew Peers Memorial Tournament. This special tradition, held in honor of a bright, beautiful student who graced our district schools and was taken from us far too soon, brings some of the finest talent in the region to Walt Whitman for a day of high-level athletic competition. We thank all of the Wildcat family members who make this annual tournament possible, and invite you to read more about our individual place winners in Dr. Wright's athletic news section.

Some Thoughts from Assistant Superintendent for Student Services April Poprilo

We try very hard to publicize as many activities as possible on our district website, Facebook, and Instagram. It can be challenging, especially at this time of year, to capture each and every holiday pow-wow, concert, academic competition, art show, athletic contest, and charity drive, yet we want very much to provide credit and offer a full representation of our district's great programs and people. To this end, we invite you to sign onto the web (shufsd.org), Facebook (<https://m.facebook.com/south-huntingtonufsd/?ref=bookmarks>), or Instagram (<https://www.instagram.com/southhuntingtonschools/>) and catch the positive energy.

News from Mr. John Murphy, Principal of Walt Whitman High School SBM Fundraiser "Night at the Theater"

The Whitman Site-Based Management (SBM) Team is holding a holiday fundraiser through the Engeman Theater in Northport. Tickets for the Thursday, December 26th show of Matilda are on sale for only $75 each. This is a bargain for this production of professional actors, and you eliminate the travel into New York City. This makes a great gift for the holidays for your little ones or your family members who still embrace their inner youth! You can purchase tickets online using the link below. Please support the SBM Team while also supporting local theater! Get tickets while they last! Please use the link below to ensure the Whitman SBM gets credit for each ticket sold. <https://web.ovationtix.com/trs/pe/10350688/prm/WALT>

While we hope that all of our students enjoy the upcoming Holiday season, we would like to remind everyone it is important that students do not leave valuables lying around in locker rooms, classrooms, the cafeteria, or anywhere unattended. All valuables should be locked up in a locked locker. We want to start and end this holiday season on a positive note and ask that you speak to your child about securing their belongings.

News from Mr. Eddie Smith, Principal of Stimson Middle School

During Penny Wars 2019, Stimson students and staff collected over 4,000 water bottles that were donated to Bottles for the Brave. Bottles for the Brave is an organization that ships care packages to soldiers stationed overseas and uses the collection of water bottles to pay for the shipping. Through the hard work of our school community, they were able to ship 25 care packages to deployed members of the military overseas. Well done Stimson!

Please be reminded that there are some important Stimson events over the next two weeks. This week Stimson hosts its annual Book Fair. All students will be visiting during their scheduled English classes. The Book Fair will also be open to parents this Wednesday evening, from 6-8 PM, at the M-Z Parent-Teacher Conference. Next week Stimson's music program takes center stage at the WWHS PAC, where our music teachers will showcase the talents of their students during our Winter Concerts. Please join us for the 7th Grade Concert on Monday, December 9th, and the 8th Grade Concert on Thursday, December 12th. Both concerts begin promptly at 7:30 PM.

News from Mr. Steve Toto, Principal of Silas Wood Sixth-Grade School

It's that most wonderful time of the year--Holiday time at Silas Wood!

Students, faculty, and staff arrived back at Silas happy and satisfied after our long Thanksgiving break that was filled with great food, good fun, and (most gratifying of all), time spent with loved ones.

Enjoying their change to second-quarter "Curriculum Wheel" classes, our sixth graders are becoming fully assimilated into a cohesive, unified group, enjoying their expanded independence, and maintaining life-long friendships, while also getting to know the entire population of their South Huntington class!

Anticipating two meaningful assemblies coming up this week (Ryan's Story on Tuesday, and Vaping Awareness/Prevention on Thursday), we happily morph into full holiday mode as our hallways ring with the glorious sounds of festive music emanating from our band, orchestra and chorus rooms, not to mention the luscious aroma of treats being created in Home and Careers. Holiday spirit is augmented by way of much tinsel and glitter in preparation for our second annual student-run Door Decorating contest, which is amping up to full steam with judging to take place on December 17th and 18th, to be quickly followed by our fourth annual Staff Ugly Sweater contest on December 20th. The lucky Ugly Sweater winner will be gifted, with not only bragging rights, but the entire month of January use of the Principal's parking spot; second place earns bragging rights and use of Associate Principal's parking space; third place, well, that gets the winner bragging rights only...

News from Mr. Anthony Ciccarelli, Principal of Birchwood Intermediate School

Birchwood will be having a half-day conference on Wednesday, December 11th. Our home-to-school connection is of utmost importance to us at Birchwood, so please take this opportunity to meet with your child's teacher(s).

If your children are signed up for Musical Theater, Coding, Intra-mural Program, or Project Excel, please remember to call the main office or send a note in with your child if they are not attending. It is helpful with our dismissal procedure that we know in advance. Please do not solely rely on an e-mail to the teacher.

News from Dr. Gayle Steele,
Principal of Maplewood Intermediate School

This week our wonderful PTA coordinated Maplewood's annual holiday boutique. Thank you to all the volunteers that helped to make this event enjoyable for our students.

Parent-teacher conferences were well attended. Thank you to all for participating in this very important part of a child's education.

Our staff participated in a great professional development opportunity this week. A personal trainer spoke to us about healthy practices for taking care of our physical and mental health. As educators, we naturally care for others but sometimes forget to take care of ourselves. It's important for us to be well in order to be at our best for our students.

The Goldilocks trial preparation continues in our fifth-grade

Next week, Maplewood will host the Board of Education meeting on December 11th, at 7:30 PM in the cafeteria. There will be a musical performance by some of our fifth grade students, led by our music teacher, Mrs. Melillo. Please come join us for this festive event.

News from Dr. Annie Michaelian, Principal of Oakwood Primary Center

Our students and staff returned from the Thanksgiving holiday with excitement and a renewed energy to dash into the month of December! It's hard to believe, but December is upon us with many special activities ahead!

This week we look forward to meeting with the parents scheduled to join us on Thursday evening, December 5th, for our Parent-Teacher conferences from 6-8 PM. This evening lends the opportunity to meet with your child's teacher and learn more about their progress in school both academically and socially. We would like to thank our amazing PTA in advance for organizing a special dinner for our teaching staff to be held on the evening of conferences. We appreciate all that you do for our school and Oakwood family!

As a reminder, December 11th is our final early dismissal day for this quarter. We will dismiss at 11:30 AM. Should you need to communicate dismissal plans for your child, please send in a note to your child's teacher. Furthermore, our kitchen staff is also serving Brunch for Lunch on this early release day.

Wishing everyone a terrific start to December!

News from Mr. Mitchell Levy, Principal of Countrywood Primary Center

We hope that everyone had a wonderful Thanksgiving. It's hard to believe that it is already December and there are only three full weeks of school until the December break. We have a lot of learning to accomplish in that time, as well as many fun and educational activities. This week our first-grade classes are in for a huge treat with the Discovery Tanks from the Cornell Co-operative program. In addition, our Kindergarten classes will all be participating in a very informative and important presentation from the Parent's for Megan's Law organization entitled "You're In Charge." A friendly reminder that this Thursday, from 6-8 PM, we will be holding our evening parent-teacher conferences. Your child's teacher should have already communicated your conference date and time; please call the school with any questions. Looking ahead to next week, please be reminded that Wednesday, December 11th is an early dismissal day for our third conference day, buses will depart Countrywood at approximately 11:30 AM. As we get more into the winter months,

News from Sheila's Food Corner

WOW.....WE ARE REALLY FEEDING OUR CHILDREN!

As we continue to make changes in the School Nutrition Department, we hope that the improvements are being received well with our families and most importantly our clients - - who are the students!

School Nutrition Programs are often called the "largest restaurants in our community," and they are right! Where else in the town of South Huntington would a restaurant be providing a meal to 3,000 children on a daily basis, and this follows serving 1,700 healthy breakfasts!

Our Lunch staff has been working hard to improve the food choices for our children while at the same time remaining constant with the State and Federal regulations that require us to make sure our meals are within the required guidelines (sugar/caloric/salt content, to name a few).

Our Fall season has been a successful one, and we look forward to an even brighter 2020!

School Board Notes – A Message from the Board of Education

Tuesday, December 10th, marks the 95th anniversary of the South Huntington Union Free School District. Back on December 10, 1924, the residents of what was the South Huntington Common School District 12 and the West Hills Common School District 13 voted to consolidate the two districts, and the South Huntington Union Free School District was established.

To commemorate this historic event, the documented history of the District will be available on the website under the Board of Education tab. Historical photographs and important occurrences will be posted throughout the year on the website, and it is hoped that this new addition to the website will provide our
