"Excellence is the unlimited ability to improve the quality of what you have to offer." —Rick Pitino

Superintendent's Corner

Each year, Niche.com conducts an extensive evaluation of the nation's schools. This annual program, which analyzes student scores, graduation rates, college attendance, safety, facilities, school culture, and activities, also places an important emphasis on diversity and equity, while simultaneously considering student, staff, and parent surveys for a trusted combination of both objective and subjective school and district performance measures.

It is with this understanding that we proudly report that Niche.com has assigned the South Huntington School District its finest ranking in the history of our schools. Therefore, it gives us great pleasure to report that, after an amalgamation of all metrics, the South Huntington School District received the 7th ranking of nearly 70 Suffolk County Schools, and earned a spot on the prestigious Top 10 list. We were also honored to be ranked number 59 out of 677 schools in the State, while being identified as the 20th most diverse district in all of New York. In addition, it brought us particular pride to learn that our parents and students had ranked our teachers in the top 50 of 690 school districts in the state.

The reality is that there will be many opportunities to share the Niche.com accomplishment over these several weeks, but we didn't want the opportunity to pass without sharing some good news, especially in these times. The bottom line is that, despite numerous challenges, our school district family rises to the occasion and the district serves as a beacon of hope for public schools across the region.

News from Deputy Superintendent Dr. Joseph Centamore in the Curriculum Office

To support our families in the navigation of the various virtual learning platforms and applications, our instructional Technology Department has created the South Huntington Parent Technology Academy. This website provides helpful videos, guides, postings of available parental workshops, and other wonderful resources. The South Huntington Parent Technology Academy can be accessed from the district web-

News from Assistant Superintendent for Business and District Operations Dr. Vito D'Elia

As the district's COVID-19 Coordinator, I want to thank our students, parents, and staff for the incredible partnership that has fueled our district opening. The bottom line is that the exemplary cooperation, ranging from masks to hand hygiene, social distancing, and so much more, have made for a positive experience amidst some extremely challenging conditions. Rest assured we are going to continue working to provide instruction for the maximum number of students in the very safest conditions.

Some Thoughts from Assistant Superintendent for Student Services April Poprilo

The Social-Emotional Wellness Screener (available in English and Spanish) is available on the district website. The survey period has been extended until Wednesday, October 7, 2020. Completion of the form is voluntary. Please note the form will only accept responses for one child at a time. All responses are confidential and will only be shared with the support team members and administrators at your child's building. In the meantime, if parent(s)/guardian(s) have an immediate question or concern, then please contact your child's school so you can be directed to a Student Services team member.

News from Dr. James Wright, Supervisor of Physical Education, Health, Athletics & Recreation

While the timing for Fall, Winter, and even Spring Athletics is still completely unknown, we do know that our Wildcat players and coaches will be ready the moment we get clearance to complete. Specific season start dates are not in the purview of local school districts, and therefore, we are all at the mercy of the "decision makers." However, our athletes and coaches will continue to train, when appropriate, so everyone is ready, willing, and able to shift to full competition at a moment's notice.

News from Mr. John Murphy, Principal of Walt Whitman High School

As we move into the beginning of the school year, Walt Whitman High School is proud to announce that we will be starting after-school activities and clubs, both virtually and in-person. These clubs are a crucial part of the high school atmosphere, allowing students the ability to learn about new interests and activities that could potentially motivate their post-secondary plans. It is our goal that these clubs start in the beginning of October. A calendar of events and activities will be provided on the high school Google site in the coming week. Please have your child listen to the morning announcements club information and schedules.

News from Mr. Eddie Smith, Principal of Stimson Middle School

As the pages of the calendar turn to a new month and we leave September behind, I am amazed by the extraordinary work of our entire staff, students, and parents. In August, as we solidified plans for reopening, I spent many nights staring at the ceiling fan wondering what "hybrid" school will look like. The moment the hallways and virtual classrooms were filled with students, I knew in my heart that this journey together would be successful. There have been lots of questions, many new procedures, and some hiccups along the way, but our students and staff have displayed poise and resilience.

Each day I seek opportunities to find greatness, and thankfully, I never have to look that hard. This week I entered a math classroom and found students (remote and in-person) thoroughly engaged. Multiple times student voices echoed through the Smartboard answering questions and solving equations without even being physically present in the classroom. Both teachers skillfully danced through their lesson, bounding from one engaging question to the next using an application called Pear Deck. What I saw made me realize that no matter what the challenge is, our South Huntington educational family will not only meet it, but will ultimately exceed it. I am so proud to work in a place of life-long learners willing to adapt, create, and inspire their students and colleagues.

News from Mr. Steve Toto, Principal of Silas Wood Sixth-Grade School

A tremendous thank you to all our families for "attending" our virtual, online Curriculum Night that took place on Tuesday, September 29th. We have received extremely positive reactions to the fantastic videos put together by our teaching staff. Thanks to all for a great job!

We will be administering the i-Ready Reading Diagnostic on Wednesday, September 30th, and the i-Ready Math Diagnostic on Thursday, October 1st. These will be administered via student Chromebooks. All students are reminded to be certain to fully charge their of September 21st. This year's theme was "Everyday Heroes," which focused on how each day is another opportunity for us to inspire others. Throughout the week, students and staff celebrated education by thinking about how courage and determination allow us to overcome adversity and sets the stage for success.

To follow and build on the theme "Everyday Heroes," students watched an inspirational video funded by our PTA's Cultural Arts Program, and then discussed what it means to be a hero both in and outside of school. Key ideas centered on how heroes inspire, challenge, and lead others!

This year, each classroom teacher received the book Tomorrow I'll Be Kind by Jessica Hische. When reading this book to students, teachers focused on how even the smallest kind gesture can make the biggest difference in the world. Follow-up reading and writing assignments were centered around ways in which students can spread kindness to others.

Finally, students enjoyed a special virtual Pet Therapy program, which provided an introduction to ways in which pets can make us feel better during times of stress. Students were able to meet Ziggy, an Italian Greyhound dog, and his handler, from an organization called Pet Partners, during the virtual sessions.

Personi and Ms. Nicosia for coordinating this for our families in such a way that everyone remained safely distanced.

Our school photo days are October 14th and October 15th. Thank you to our PTA for organizing this for our students. School photo day is a traditional part of our school culture, and we are excited to be able to offer this safely. Information was sent home with both A and B groups, and it has been posted in the Google Classrooms of our virtual classes. Parents of our virtual students can sign up for a photo session that will take place after school on these dates. All information is posted on the PTA Facebook page.

News from Dr. Annie Michaelian, Principal of Oakwood Primary Center

Greetings to our Oakwood families! This week was full of energy as we began our Virtual Curriculum Nights with our Kindergarten families on Tuesday. We continue with our First- and Second-Grade Curriculum Nights on Wednesday, September 30th, and Thursday, October 1st. These evenings continue to be a great success as we witness the true beauty of the home-school partnership!

Please consider joining the Oakwood PTA this year! Information has been sent home regarding membership. The PTA hosts many exciting events for our students and families. Please note the Spiritwear sale is underway. Use the link below to purchase Oakwood gear:

<https://stores.inksoft.com/oak199/shop/home>

Additionally, the PTA has organized School Photos for October 6th (A-Day students) and October 7th (B-Day students). Classroom teachers will be sharing information with families. The PTA is also scheduling photos for Oakwood's remote learners. More details to follow in the coming days.

News from Mr. Mitchell Levy, Principal of Countrywood Primary Center

Thank you to all of our families, students and staff who weathered our school closure and subsequent re-opening. I am hopeful that we have gotten this "bump in the road" out of the way, and am pleased that our processes and procedures proved effective. We are hopeful that we will have smooth sailing ahead, but are confident that we have plans in place should we need to implement them at a moment's notice.

This week it has been wonderful to catch up with our families during "virtual" Curriculum Nights. Thank you to our families who have logged in to hear from our special area teachers, support staff, Ms. Njenga and I, and of course, our classroom teachers. This is certainly a very different year than any in our past, and we thank you for partnering with us to make the absolute best of this challenging situation. Now more than ever, a strong home/school partnership is critical. As always, we are here to work with you. Please reach out to your child's classroom teacher, Ms. Njenga or I, with any questions or concerns.

We wanted to share with our families that we are working to keep our traditional "Pumpkin Hunt" alive, albeit a new, COVID Edition, and I wanted to thank Ms. Njenga who has been reaching out to various farms to secure pumpkins. On top of the COVID pandemic, our usual pumpkin farm has closed up shop this year. We will be sending home a flyer with more details on this annual tradition shortly.

We wish you a healthy, safe, and enjoyable week ahead.

News from the Board of Education

Our Board of Education wishes to acknowledge and congratulate our instructional and non-instructional staff members for continuing the excellence in our South Huntington learning family!

Niche.com has once again provided an A+ rating to our South Huntington School District, ranking the District as No. 7 in Suffolk County and No. 366 in America! These two rankings reflect the hard work, dedication, commitment and resiliency of all of our employees and shines a bright light on our success! Given COVID has changed so much in our world, it truly is a breath of fresh air to have these statistics announced and know that our students are the beneficiaries of the superior efforts of our South Huntington learning family!
